Called Woman Scorned:

Mrs. Farber Details Slaying Of Husband

FREEHOLD, N.J. (AP) — Marjorie Farber rose slowly from the witness stand, pressed her outstretched arms against a table top and sobbingly portrayed how her paramour, Dr. Carl Coppolino, allegedly smothered and strangled her husband.

"He pulled this pillow from underneath my husband's head and he put it over... Just put it over his head and leaned his full weight down on him like this..."

A small figure in blue, she shut her eyes and shook the table for an instant. A diamond wedding ring on her left hand glistened.

"And I just stood there and looked," she gasped.

Then she slumped back into the witness chair as lurid accusations of adultery, hypnotic trances, drugs and murder unfolded before a jury trying Dr. Coppolino in the death of retired Army Lt. Col. William E. Farber.

Trapped By Hypnosis

Mrs. Farber, a 32-year-old brunette, testified as the state's star witness Friday, claiming that Coppolino entrapped her in a "love plan" through hypnosis.

She said she tried to drug her husband to death while under Coppolino's spell but couldn't go through with it.

In his opening statement, defense attorney F. Lee Bailey told the jury of 10 men and four women that the first-degree murder charge against Coppolino was a "cruel hoax" concocted by a woman scorned. He promised to prove that Farber died of natural causes.

"This woman wants this man so badly that she would sit on his lap in the electric chair while someone pulled the switch," Bailey said.

Who Killing Charged

He accused Mrs. Farber of turning against Coppolino because he married Mary Gibson, 39, a wealthy divorcee, after his first wife died last year in Sarasota, Fla.

Coppolino was indicted on a murder charge in his first wife Carmela's death after Mrs. Farber went to Sarasota authorities. He was indicted in Farber's death at the same time.

Presiding Judge Elvin R. Simmler warned Mrs. Farber at the outset that her testimony might incriminate her in the alleged slaying. She said she was underdressed and had not received any promise of immunity from prosecution as an accomplice.

Mrs. Farber was expected to again take the stand Monday when the trial resumes.

Wholesale Prices Decline Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department says its wholesale price index, which sometimes signals the trend of retail prices, dropped last month for the second straight month.

The department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said Friday the November index dropped three-tenths of 1 per cent to 105.9 of its 1957-59 average. This means it cost $105.90 last month to purchase wholesale items worth $100 in the 1957-59 period.

The index declined six-tenths of 1 per cent in October.

Legislators Reject Auto Inspections

LANSING (AP) — Members of the first Democratic legislature since 1930s folded their tents Friday and went home, some of them to stay.

But first the lawmakers wound up a three-day adjournment session by acting on a handful of measures left over from their two busy years in office.

Democrats began the now-ended 73rd legislature with majorities of 73-37 in the House and 23-15 in the Senate, thanks in part to the 1964 Lyndon Johnson landslide.

When the 74th legislature convenes next Jan. 11, they'll face a 55-53 split in the House and a 20-18 Republican majority in the Senate.

Before adjourning the three-hour session at noon, the lawmakers:

—Amended the State Fair Labor Practices Code to ban job discrimination according to sex;

—Rejected compulsory motor vehicle inspection;

—Shifted the expiration date of commercial license plates from Jan. 31 to Feb. 28;

—Attempted to attract to Michigan a planned $300 million federal nuclear laboratory;

—Fixed a mistake they made earlier while amending a state bonding law. They went home without approving a $600,000 windfall for the Wayne County Welfare Department.

Compulsory motor vehicle inspection, which has been rejected by the legislature before, ended in a 36-36 House tie, but 55 votes were needed for passage.

It would have allowed State Police to set up auto inspection stations around the state—many, probably, in gasoline stations—and to require that all vehicles except a few pieces of farm machinery be inspected for safety violations.

Those favoring the bill, which had passed the Senate, said it would take unsafe cars off the road and cut the traffic accident toll.

But one opponent, Rep. Jack Faxon, D-Detroit, termed it a "guaranteed minimum wage for garage-keepers" and "one of the greatest harassments to the people of Michigan that has ever been devised."

Old Pro Foils Robbery Try

DETROIT (AP) — A 67-year-old former prize fighter was shot as he thwarted a would-be robber Friday. Dorsey T. Pearson, who fought under the name of Billy Pearson, was on a rent collecting run when he was approached by a gunman. Pearson tried to wrestle the gun away and was shot. The thug escaped. Pearson said the man was part of a foursome that had attempted to take his money a day earlier.

Romney Making His Move For President

Conservatives Stronger; May Block Romney

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite major election triumphs by moderate Republicans, the party's conservative wing was the winner insofar as the results will affect the makeup of the 1968 GOP nominating convention.

This may present added difficulties for Michigan Gov. George Romney, whose expected candidacy already is opposed by some conservative Republican groups because he failed to support GOP nominee Barry Goldwater in 1964.

The size of GOP convention delegations is determined by an elaborate formula which gives added weight to states which support the Republican presidential nominee, elect a Republican governor or choose a Republican senator.

Nine States Gain

Under the formula, nine states stand to gain delegates in 1968. Seven of the nine had 1964 delegations which supported Goldwater. Of five states losing strength, three supported the former Arizona senator in the 1964 convention.

The result is to give added weight in the 1968 convention to delegations likely to have conservative leanings.

States gaining six delegates each are Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, South Carolina, Arkansas, Hawaii, Maryland and Nevada. The first four get their seats because Goldwater carried the states in the 1964 election. The other four get extra delegates for electing a GOP senator or governor.

Mississippi gains seven seats, six for Goldwater's 1964 victory and the other for casting 10,000 Republican votes in each congressional district.

Except for Arkansas, where Gov.-elect Winthrop Rockefeller might prefer a moderate, the Southern delegations are likely to oppose Romney. Maryland and Hawaii are expected to support a moderate like Romney.

Need 667 Votes

Five states lose six seats each: Indiana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Utah and Virginia. Delegations from Indiana, Utah and Virginia supported Goldwater's nomination in 1964 but Utah might back Romney, a Mormon, in 1968.

The 1968 GOP convention will have 1,333 delegates with 667 needed for the nomination. The 1964 meeting had 1,306 delegates.

Tumult In Court Judge Threatened, But With Respect

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The judge ordered two hardened convicts gagged and bound in straitjackets before letting their trial continue. A third convict threatened to kill him.

When the five-week trial in Allegheny County criminal court ended Friday night with the conviction of the trio for attempted prison break, one defendant called the judge a "creep."

The three Western State Penitentiary inmates — Richard Maberry, 28; Dominic Codispoti, 34; and Herbert F. Lagnes, 27 — acted as their own attorneys. Sentencing was set for Monday.

As Judge Albert A. Fick began charging the jury, Maberry and Codispoti threw the courtroom into an uproar by shouting at the jury and drowning out the judge.

Fick called a recess and ordered the pair removed. Twenty minutes later deputies marched them into the courtroom. The two prisoners were bound in heavy canvas straitjackets and their mouths were taped shut.

Lagnes, still unbound, shook a fist at the judge and screamed: "I swear on my mother's name, I'll keep my threats to you. You understand that, you f---. I'll shake hands with you in hell. You're a dead man."

He added a respectful, "your honor."

Last week Lagnes told Fick: "If I can't get my rights legally, I'll get them illegally. If I have to blow your head off, that's what I'll do."

While Lagnes made his new threat, Maberry and Codispoti mumbled loudly through their gags. The situation completely out of control, Fick called another recess.

Because the accused must be present to hear the charge, the judge ordered them into an anteroom and broadcast the charge by loudspeaker.

Each man was charged with holding two prison guards hostage while attempting to escape with zip guns and prison-made bombs from Western State June 27, 1965. Twenty deputies were in court.

Jack Ruby Has Pneumonia; In Dallas Hospital

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, but a month or so away from a new trial, was taken from the Dallas County jail to Parkland Hospital Friday with what the hospital called a serious case of pneumonia.

Phil Burleson, one of Ruby's lawyers, said it was "too early to tell" how the illness might affect a new trial for his client.

Ruby, 35, was convicted and sentenced to death for Oswald's slaying, but the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals recently reversed the 1964 conviction and ordered a new trial outside of Dallas.

Dist. Judge Louis Holland, who has presided over the case since trial judge Joe B. Brown bowed out, transferred the trial to Wichita Falls but set no date. He indicated it possibly would be in February.

Burleson saw Ruby soon after he arrived at the hospital and described him as a very sick man.

"We are concerned," said the lawyer. "I think he's very sick."

"The guy's dying," said Ruby's sister, Eva Grant.

A jail doctor said Ruby had a "throat tickling kind of cough" but at 10 a.m. Friday there was no fever.

Sheriff Bill Decker said he ordered Ruby to the hospital after talking to Ruby for the first time in about 10 days and conferring with Dr. J.M. Pickard, county health officer.

Faces Big Job Of Selling To Party Leaders

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney is making his move for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination — but there is a job of salesmanship ahead among his moderate colleagues as well as GOP conservatives.

There is Californian Ronald Reagan, who said in an interview he is ruling out no potential candidate, is committed to none, and wants to see Romney in national action before he makes any decisions.

Reagan has had harsh words about Romney's refusal to endorse the 1964 GOP ticket headed by Barry Goldwater. The Michigan governor is known to have talked with Reagan in an effort to smooth out their differences. Reagan is likely to command California's 86 convention votes when Republicans gather to choose their next presidential nominee.

Some liberal to moderate GOP governors indicated that they, too, remain to be convinced about Romney.

Romney insists it will be six months before he decides whether to seek the White House. But there was little doubt about his candidacy today among other Republican governors convened in this mountain resort.

Colorado's Gov. John A. Love was elected chairman of the Republican Governors' Association. Gov. John H. Chafee of Rhode Island was chosen vice chairman, to succeed to the top spot next year.

In his farewell address as chairman, outgoing Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie said the next GOP nominee may well win the White House.

Romney said he is not asking other governors to commit themselves to support him for the nomination.

Active Candidacy

But with these moves, he stepped into an active unannounced candidacy.

He said he is not discouraging the formation of volunteer organizations to promote his cause. Even as he talked, a band of three dozen youthful supporters chanted, "We want Romney" and waved presidential placards.

He said he is not ruling out entry in 1968 presidential primaries.

The Michigan governor said he may find it necessary to go to Viet Nam, to gain information and shape his stand on steps to settle the war.

"It remains to be seen whether Johnson can get us out of Viet Nam or whether it will take a Republican president to do it," he said.

Talking like a candidate he added: "I think the people should have the information on how I feel about Viet Nam before they make up their minds."

"One needs to know how the people feel about you — whether they want you or don't want you."

Farm Prices Edge Up Very Slightly

LANSING (AP) — The index of prices received by Michigan farmers was very slightly higher Nov. 15 than in the middle of the previous month, the Michigan Crop Reporting Service said Friday.

The November index was 239 per cent of the 1910-14 average, up one point — or less than 1 per cent — from October. Compared with November 1965, the index was up 27 points or 12 per cent.

The gain for the year resulted as price increases for wholesale milk, seasonal fruits and corn more than offset price declines for dry beans and hogs, the service said.

16 Die, 11 Wounded:

U.S. Bombs Rip Marines

SAIGON, South Viet Nam AP — Two 250-pound bombs dropped from a U.S. Marine Corps plane exploded in the midst of a Marine company today, killing 16 Leathernecks and wounding 11, a Marine spokesman said.

The bombs were among six dropped to support a Marine battalion advancing along a razorback ridge, known as the Rockpile, about five miles south of the demilitarized zone, he said.

The other four fell on their intended targets ahead of the advancing marines.

The spokesman said the two errant bombs may have ricocheted after striking the rocky terrain or there may have been a malfunction in the bombing mechanism.

The bombing strike was aimed at a suspected concentration of North Vietnamese troops on the ridge.

BN Near Saigon

In other war action, the Viet Cong mounted a series of attacks and ambushes within a 35-mile ring around Saigon and in one assault inflicted heavy casualties on Vietnamese troops.

An estimated 500-man Viet Cong force attacked two companies of Vietnamese popular force soldiers at an army training center 34 miles southeast of Saigon and took a heavy toll before withdrawing, official spokesmen reported.

While the Communists centered on the capital area with this and smaller attacks, 1,700 guerrilla-trained American infantrymen arrived in South Viet Nam in the continuing buildup of U.S. forces and a squadron of F100 Super Sabres was added to American air strength here.

Force To Increase

The new arrivals brought to 263,700 the number of American servicemen in South Viet Nam. More are expected in the next few days.

On the political front, U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk continued his Saigon visit by conferring with top Vietnamese and Americans. Later he told newsmen "we've seen no indication yet" that the Communists would be interested in extending the 48-hour Christmas truce.

The first contingent of the U.S. 100th Light Infantry Brigade departed at Vung Tau, 40 miles south of Saigon. The rest of the 4,000-man brigade was due within a few days. Also scheduled to arrive soon is another full U.S. infantry division.

Except for the guerrilla fighting around Saigon, there was no major ground action reported.

BN Ammunition

In the air, war high-flying B52 bombers staged three raids on Communist troops and bases today in South Viet Nam and American pilots flew 78 bombing missions over North Viet Nam Friday.

She Is 'Santa' To Hundreds

By CLINT DUNATHAN Because of Mr. and Mrs. John Swed of 525 N. 20th St. the world is happier place for hundreds of patients at Newberry State Hospital.

For they have devoted much of their spare time for the past 25 or 30 years — "it's so long I've forgotten," said Mrs. Swed — to a special gift project that supplies toys and amusing and interesting items to the residents of the mental institution.

Their home has become a workshop for their project, especially one room that once served as the garage and has been converted to a center of operations. Here the used toys, all the materials needed, are assembled — together with Mrs. Swed's sewing machine which goes merrily whirring along miles of seams throughout the year.

Gifts For Everyone "The things we send over go to everyone at the hospital, not just to the children," explained Mrs. Swed. "For instance, there is crocheted cotton and things that the elderly use, and then there are toys and stuffed animals and dolls for the young people."

Delta Involved In Federal Plan:

Alger-Marquette Combine In Mental Health Board

Formation of an Alger-Marquette county Mental Health Board has completed organization of a three-county mental health program designed to begin bringing improved services to residents in 1967.

The 12-member Alger-Marquette Board was organized under Michigan Act 54 this week with James Dompierre, Negaunee, as chairman.

Delta County formed its Mental Health Board under the same act last month and elected Dr. George Maniaci of Gladstone as its chairman.

Third force in the program is a three-county federal funds compact of about 80 members.

The compact, which includes representation from both Mental Health Boards, will administer a federal program providing about $275,000 for mental health services over a five-year period.

Result of Plan

The arrangement—two separate Act 54 Boards working together in a single federal project—is what was finally resolved out of an original plan formulated last summer which called for the three counties to unite in a single Act 54 Board. The Delta County Board of Supervisors rejected the tri-county Act 54 unit in favor of getting its own program underway.

Under Michigan Act 54, individual counties or cities over 50,000 population can form a Mental Health board to administer a community mental health program. The state will pay 75 per cent of the cost.

Using federal money as a springboard during the initial five years, cost to the counties will be minimum.

During the first year of the program, the three counties could receive about $90,000 in federal aid.

Dr. Maniaci said that although formation of the Delta County Act 54 board on Oct. 28 was too late to meet a Nov. 1 deadline for 1967-68 state fiscal assistance, application will be made for an implementation grant for Delta County to help get the program underway.

Maniaci said Dr. David Wall of Marquette has been named consulting psychiatrist for Delta County.

C&NW Ends Case For Rock Island

CHICAGO — The marathon hearings in the battle for control of the Rock Island Railroad passed another milestone this week with conclusion of the presentation of the North Western Railway's case.

Since May 4, the Interstate Commerce Commission has been holding public hearings into the alternate proposals of the Chicago & North Western Railway and Union Pacific Railroad for control of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific.

The hearings will recess until Jan. 4, when the Santa Fe Railway will begin presenting evidence to support its application to purchase certain southern Rock Island lines from North Western if North Western's control application receives commission approval.

Under an agreement between North Western and Santa Fe, North Western has stated that its preference is to acquire the entire Rock Island, intact, rather than sell off any portion of it to another carrier. But in the event the commission should conclude that a division of the Rock Island would best serve the public interest, North Western says it would then be willing to sell certain southern Rock Island lines to the Santa Fe for $100 million — not including the Rock Island present main line between Kansas City and Tucumcari, N.M. If the ICC does not approve a divi-

Farming Hopes Will Be Told

Agricultural problems and production in the Northern Great Lakes region will be discussed by national and area spokesmen at a Dec. 14-15 meeting of the Northern Great Lakes Development Committee in Green Bay, Wis.

John A. Baker, assistant secretary of agriculture, Thomas Francis, federal co-chairman of the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission, and George S. McIntyre, acting director of the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service, will be featured. McIntyre will represent the Extension services of the three states in reporting that great strides have been made in research which shows that areas of the NGL region are very well suited to certain types of agriculture.

Research at Michigan State University has shown that fruit production in parts of the region offers substantial opportunity for many farmers. Beef cattle studies at the University of Wisconsin have shown how beef operations may also be profitable in some areas.

The NGL Resource Development Committee is a citizens group dedicated to the development of the northern counties in the tri-state region and 45 of the 81 counties in the region are in Michigan.

Michigan members include: Harold Dettman, chairman-board of supervisors, Mackinac; Fred Hahne, banker, Manistiquette; Roy Jensen, secretary-treasurer, Michigan Fish Producers Association, Escanaba.

UPCAP Fishery Project Making Hancock Fillets

The Michigan Conservation Department has issued a new trawling permit to Wilson Brothers Fisheries of Ontonagon to trawl in Lake Superior for fish that will be supplied to the Inland Seas Corp. plant in West Hancock.

The experimental commercial project there to develop an attractive line of new fish products from the Great Lakes was created by UPCAP and the Area Redevelopment Administration. The project to rehabilitate Great Lakes fishing enterprise started in UPCAP five years ago and is now coming to commercial fruition in the Hancock operation, which was envisioned as the first of a series of such enterprises.

UPCAP, with the aid of federal and state agencies like the ARA and especially the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, did the study and then encouraged the creation of a commercial company, Inland Seas, to put its plans to work in private enterprise. The project coincided with a restoration of the Lake Superior fishery, which fell to such low estate as a fish producer that the Michigan Conservation Department ended all commercial fishing in the lake.

Fishery Restored

Lake Superior now has fish in numbers that would permit commercial fishing, but the state hasn't made up its mind yet about how to harvest them with a system that would control new methods of discovery and harvest. The lake could be "fished out" without careful management.

The Wilson Brothers trawler, the A. E. Clifford, has been authorized by the state to trawl from the mouth of the Black River in Gogebic County to Big Bay Point in Marquette County in Lake Superior, taking, primarily alewife, smelt, chubs, herring, suckers, and burbot (lawyers).

Trawling will be done one week a month under supervision of the Bureau of Fisheries representative and the rest of the time the Clifford will carry out experimental commercial fishing operations to determine catch rates for various species of fish in different areas and to supply fish for the Inland Seas fish products plant in West Hancock. The permit expires Feb. 28, 1967.

Since Summer

The Hancock plant started installation of machinery last summer to process whitefish, chubs, smelt, herring and other fresh water fish into fillets and other food products.

Some of the machinery came from manufacturers in this country and some from Sweden. The plant equipment has cost about $180,000 and $15,000 has been spent on the trawler. Hancock was chosen as site for the plant because the Keweenaw Peninsula is strategic to the south shore of Lake Superior where the fishery experiment is being conducted. The plant is a former Houghton County Traction Co. power house which once generated electricity for street car lines.

Inland Seas Corp. is headed by Robert Lang of Hancock, president; Clifford Gearhart of Brimley, vice president; Ernest Neva of Houghton, treasurer; and Atty. Andrew Wiist of Chassell, secretary.

Breaded Fillets

The firm's directorate represents Hancock, Chassell, Duluth, Houghton, Brimley, Bayfield, Wis., and Isle Royale, and directors include Roger Bodin, Arthur and Stanley Siverson, Louis Kemp, Henry Strom and Robert Johnson, beside the officers.

Currently being packaged are breaded chub fillets in 16 ounce packages. Inland Seas has a government contract for 10,000 pounds of breaded cisco, 10,000 pounds of unbreaded cisco, 10,000 pounds of unbreaded chubs and 10,000 pounds of breaded dressed smelt.

The supply of fish hasn't been up at expectation at Hancock until now, bad weather and boat troubles adding to the difficulties of supply.

The plant has 12 persons employed. Glenn Fleishman, Marquette, from the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries office in Ann Arbor, is quality control specialist in the project.

Exhaust Fume Dangers Noted

The number of accidental deaths from carbon monoxide poisoning is again growing this year, according to State Health Director Albert E. Heustis.

"These fatalities are tragically useless, and could be avoided with a few common sense precautions," Dr. Heustis observed. "Some 59 deaths from this poisonous agent were reported in the period between July, 1965 and June, 1966. And we can expect to see at least an equal number of victims in the next reported figures."

The deaths resulted from 62 cases of carbon monoxide poisoning, involving 344 people.

"The key to avoiding a dangerous situation is to always be sure to provide adequate ventilation—whether you are in your car, a hunting cabin in the woods, or your garage. As long as a good supply of fresh air is circulating, you're safe," he said.

"If your car has a defective exhaust system you're literally gambling with your life," he said. "If the fumes seep back through the fire wall or up through the floor, the occupants can be asphyxiated without even realizing it."

"It is also important to never run the car's engine when you are parked—many of the deaths each year are from this simple cause. Couples are found unconscious or dead in automobiles with the ignition on and the gas tank empty," Dr. Heustis said.

In the home charcoal grills present a serious hazard. These grills are designed for out-of-doors cooking and should never be used indoors or even in a garage or partially enclosed breezeway.

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY IS UNVEILED AND BECOMES A STIRRING SYMBOL OF AMERICA

To an American serviceman returning from a war; to an immigrant coming here for the first time; to anyone who loves America—the Statue of Liberty stands as one of the most inspiring sights on earth. Yet, surprisingly few people can name the man who designed it. His name: Frederic Auguste Bartholdi. The Statue was given to the U.S. by the people of France who admired American government. It was unveiled, and began its long vigil here, Oct. 28, 1886.

At the Statue is Emma Lazarus's immortal poem: "Give me your tired, your poor, Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, The wretched refuse of your teeming shore, Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed, to me: I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

cleans them, and they are ready for re-use.

"I stuff them with cotton, or silk stockings, or foam rubber and sew them together again and they are just as good as new," she explained.

Broken dolls that come to the "workshop" are carefully mended. Sometimes parts of one broken doll help complete the repairs on another one.

"Last year we had more than 400 dolls and 375 stuffed animals ready for the people at the hospital," said Mrs. Swed. "There were other gifts, of course. The Mead Corp. gave a whole load of paper on which the children could draw pictures."

Clairmont Transfer Co. — "they truck everything over without charge" — will send a truck of gifts to Newberry on Tuesday, including the many articles prepared by the Sweds.

"About once a month we take our station wagon and trailer and take a load over to the hospital ourselves," said Mrs. Swed. "The whole project just goes from one year into the next and we never really stop."

The Sweds find enjoyment in the work they do for others — and it's not done to keep them busy. For they have five children of their own, 14 grandchildren, and other near family members to think about also.

No doubt there is the rewarding knowledge that in restoring toys, rehabilitating broken dolls, and providing gifts of thoughtfulness for others, they are helping in the process that goes to mend the lives of these who receive them.

The Escanaba League of Women Voters will host the Escanaba Area High School debate team at its Christmas meeting next week.

The students will present this year's debate topic: "That the foreign aid program of the United States should be limited to non-military assistance."

The debate squad includes Judy Young and Cheryl La Brie, affirmative and John Walbridge and Robert Mosenfelder, negative. Janice Ferguson will serve as timer. Mrs. Clara Lang is the debate coach.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Anderson, 528 S. 9th St., on Monday, Dec. 12 at 8 p.m. It will be a combined meeting of the morning and evening units.

The program will be followed by a Christmas party and gift exchange.

Board To Hear Federal Plans

The Escanaba Area Board of Education is expected to approve two new projects for 1967 under the Elementary-Secondary Education Act when it meets in regular session at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the School Administration building.

The programs, drafted by the staff writing committee and approved by the citizen's planning committee, will provide additional instruction for some 620 students and pre-schoolers.

A summer reading program for 560 elementary children and a pilot pre-school program for 60 Washington School area children are included. Application will be submitted to the Michigan Dept. of Education, if approved by the Board.

In other business, according to the agenda prepared by Supt. Luther M. Barrett, the Board will consider construction alternatives for the new Washington School, restoration of cuts made at bidding time for other new elementary buildings, approval of new teachers contracts for the second semester and disposal of houses purchased to clear areas for new school construction.

Supt. Barrett also listed professional negotiations with teachers for 1967-68, the non-professional contract, curriculum, athletics, commencement, property in Escanaba Township, and activities and hot lunch reports for discussion with the Board.

Created For Delta But

Bay Students From 70 Towns

Although Bay de Noc Community College was established to serve the educational needs of Delta County residents, its student population represents 70 different home towns: 15 from out-of-state, 39 from Michigan, but out of the county, and 16 towns within Delta County.

The college's mission policy allows matriculation of graduates of recognized high schools and other persons by examination, or as a special student for limited course work. There are graduates of 67 high schools on campus. Nine Delta County high school graduates 70 per cent of the student population, 38 Michigan out-of-county high schools graduate 24 per cent, 19 out-of-state high schools graduate five per cent, and one foreign and two correspondence schools provide the remaining one per cent.

Graduate Year Span
The on-campus high school graduates represent 30 commencement years, dating from 1928 through 1965. Graduates of the last five years comprise 81 per cent of this total and 19 per cent graduated more than five years ago. College experience and records indicate that approximately 80 per cent of Bay's students will continue to be drawn from Delta County.

ty, 19 per cent from Michigan but out-of-county, and one per cent of the students will be out-of-state residents.

It is further anticipated that 60 per cent of the student population will be male, and 80 per cent will not have been married at any time.

The college's students have dissimilar backgrounds but share the common desire for self-improvement. Their educational programs are similar; 75 per cent express a desire to receive a degree in higher education and 23 per cent of these students plan to conclude their formal education with the attainment of the two-year associate degree.

Choice of College

The students' reasons for selecting Bay de Noc Community College tend to ease differences and promote a homogeneous environment: low cost, location close to home, good faculty, and special curriculum offerings are the major reasons checked by over 50 per cent of this year's freshman class. A survey report indicative of the student's identification of the two most important reasons for attending college again shows continuity. More than 65 per cent express a common desire to secure occupational or professional training and to improve intellectual abilities.

Student behavior can be measured in academic areas, say college spokesmen. It is an intangible effort at best to measure other behavioral changes. It has been observed that the diverse student backgrounds of home and school environment, age, marital status, religious preference, and economic conditions defeat provincialism and allow students to assume a more cosmopolitan approach to life.

Student employment, on or off campus, prompts behavior changes, as does working and socializing in college clubs and organizations. Personal behavior changes of students are evidenced by association with them, but they are difficult to report analytically.

No Malcontent Group

Student behavior at the college approximates that observed and reported on other campuses. An exception has been noted at Bay de Noc: while most fads are tried by a few students, there are no undisciplined, rabid or malcontent elements. This may be predicated upon the close proximity of parental censure, and the presence of more mature individuals.

The learning process involves some observable behavior change. The greatest changes stem from the accelerated learning which takes place in the academic area. Students who change curriculum, receive notice of probation, fail examinations, or withdraw from college frequently appear to be undergoing behavioral modification. Notice of probation for unsatisfactory work necessitates an alteration in behavioral patterns.

College student withdrawals last semester (fall of 1965) were six per cent of the full-time students and 15 per cent of the part-time students. The largest group, 23 per cent from a total of 43 who withdrew from the college, did so to enter military service.

Fr. Wilson Ends Chaplain Career

Chaplain Albert W. Wilson celebrated his last Mass as an Army chaplain recently in the Fort Devens, Mass., chapel center, terminating 23 years of duty with the Army.

Born in Escanaba, Father Wilson attended the first two years of college at Jordan Seminary in Menominee. In 1935 he joined the Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Fathers) and entered Catholic University in Washington, D.C. Graduating from the seminary in 1940, he spent the following three years teaching in the seminary.

Beginning his Army career in 1943 during World War II, Father Wilson embarked on the first of his extensive overseas tours, which took him to New Guinea, the Philippines and Japan. He briefly returned to the United States, spent a year in the Aleutian Islands and left the service.

During the Korean War, he was recalled to active duty in Korea, after which he was sent to France and Germany. Since that time Father Wilson has been stationed in Hawaii, Missouri, Germany (from where he was medically evacuated to Valley Forge Hospital) and Fort Devens, Mass.

During his distinguished

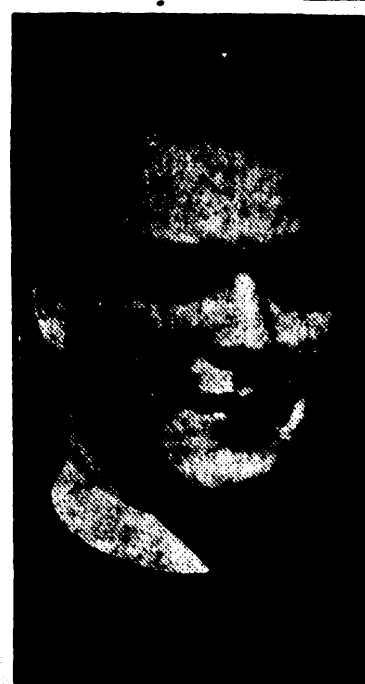

Army career, Father Wilson has received many honors, including the Bronze Star, the Army Commendation ribbon with oak leaf cluster, Asiatic-Pacific ribbons with four battle stars, Armed Forces Reserve 10-year-pin, Korean Theater ribbon with three battle stars, Philippine Liberation ribbon, National Defense ribbon, World War II Victory medal, United Nations ribbon, Philippine Presidential Unit citation, Korean Presidential Unit citation and American Defense ribbon.

Serving as a battlefield chaplain, Father Wilson administered the Sacraments just behind the front line, held Mass to the accompaniment of shells bursting, comforted the wounded and dying and has been a friend to countless soldiers.

When serving the military during peace time, his duties were those of a parish priest.

Fr. Wilson is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William G. Wilson of Escanaba. After a brief leave, he will report to the seminary at St. Nazianz, Wis., for assignment to one of the Salvatorian Communities.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

The City Commission will focus its attention Monday on the proposed housing project for elderly citizens.

A resolution approving an application of the housing commission and a resolution of cooperation in the project are expected to be considered, according to the agenda released today by City Manager H. J. Henriksen. The Commission meets at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the City Hall.

Also listed for action is the naming of streets in the industrial park; employees Christmas bonus; a traffic engineers seminar at Ishpeming and a city managers conference at Ann Arbor, and consideration of a date for the next meeting. The commission would normally meet next on Dec. 26, which is a legal holiday.

Keep toast hot for a few minutes this way: arrange slices on a rack and place in a warm oven until served. Never stack hot toast. It wilts.

For a quick spread, drain sardines and mash with mayonnaise. Spread on crackers and sprinkle with minced green olives.

Dear Heloise:

I hang an average-size clipboard on a hook in the kitchen, with a pad of paper and pencil attached.

Whenever a needed item comes to mind, the pad is convenient for jotting it down.

When I'm ready to go shopping, I just take the whole clipboard with me. It stands up beautifully on the child's seat that most shopping carts have. So, while I'm shopping I can just glance to see what I need. That way both hands are free for shopping.

Ishpeming Is Escanaba's Fourth Straight Victim

Esky Controls Boards, Hits Over 50 Percent

By RAY CRANDALL
(Press Sports Editor)

The good big team gobbled up the good little team in the battle of Upper Peninsula's defending champions here Friday night as Escanaba whipped Ishpeming, 81-61.

The victory was the fourth straight for Coach Harold Johnson's Class A champs while the setback was the first after four victories for the Hematites who captured the U. P. Class B title last season.

An awesome rebounding performance combined with a torrid shooting exhibition kept the Eskymos in command of the game, although the Hematites made a stirring bid for an upset in the early minutes of the second period.

Esky Controls Boards
Ishpeming came here to run, but the Hematites learned that you can't gallop without the ball. The vaunted Hematite fast break attack collapsed when the Eskymos established complete control of the boards.

Coach Duane Phillips' cagers also learned another lesson when they threw a full court press on the Eskymos in the third period. Escanaba had little trouble breaking the defense and took advantage of the situation by feeding big Bob Myrvall under the bucket for a half dozen easy dog shots.

Playing without the services of one of their lanky veterans, Bernie Larson, who suffered a severe ankle sprain in Thursday's workout, the Eskymos almost doubled the Hematites in rebounds, 55 to 30.

Dave Nyquist, 6 foot 5 inch senior, stalked an early claim to a large share of the territory under both baskets. He used his height and heft to great advantage by hauling down 23 rebounds.

All the Eskymos had their shooting toes on. As a team they clicked on 33 of 60 shots from the field for a nifty 55 per cent.

Miller Scores 24
Facing the Eskymo attack was Paul Miller, sick 6 foot 1 inch senior whose soft jumper broke Ishpeming's back in the middle stages of the contest. He canned 11 field goals and added two free throws for 24 points.

Myrvall came through with 10, Nyquist 15 and guard Dan Mylander 12 to give the Eskymos four players in double digits.

The Eskymos fired out to a 6-0 lead on fielders by Miller, Nyquist and Myrvall and had an 18-11 edge at the end of the first quarter. Ishpeming stormed back to match a 21-20 lead early in the second period but Miller pumped in four straight jump shots from the top of the free throw circle and Escanaba regained a 35-23 margin at the intermission.

The Hematites were never in contention during the second half as Nyquist dominated the POWERS-SPALDING — The Powers Spalding Tigers ran up their third straight Big Seven Conference triumph Friday night, measuring the Carney Wolves, 78-57.

Coach Tom LeQuia's league leaders took control early in the game and were never headed. Roger Stebbins led four Tigers in double figures with 21 points.

Carney was paced by Doug Benson who tallied 14 points and grabbed 15 rebounds.

Carney capped the preliminary game, 59-41.

Coatta Named Badger Coach

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — John Coatta, an ex-Wisconsin quarterback of the Bart Starr school, has been assigned to replace the late Coach J. Edgar at the University of Wisconsin. Coatta, who played for the Packers, was named to succeed his former boss, Milt Bruhn, who resigned after a third straight losing season.

The elevation of Coatta to the $18,500-a-year job had been expected. The university's Athletic Board unanimously recommended the promotion Tuesday night, but Coatta was not informed officially until after the Board of Regents ratified the decision Friday.

Coatta, a former assistant at Florida State, was given a three-year contract by the regents, who named Bruhn assistant athletic director at Wisconsin.

Braves Upset Mustang Five

MUNISING—The Gladstone Braves made their fourth straight road trip of the young basketball season last night and notched their second triumph, nipping Munising by a 77-74 margin in Great Lakes Conference action.

Coach Bill Wood shook up his starting combination and it paid off in a solid performance that had four players hitting double scoring figures.

The starters included three sophomores in Dennis Anderson, John Watson and Steve Nelson, and a junior in Mark Stupak. Tom Stade, senior guard, rounded out the opening lineup.

Nelson came through with seven field goals in nine shots in the second half in which he scored 16 of his 19 points as the Braves erased a 12 point deficit in the second period.

They trailed, 36-24, at one stage of the game.

Wood's big three up front came through with an outstanding game under the boards. Stupak, Watson and Nelson teamed up to snare 34 rebounds. Gladstone had a 50-40 edge in that department.

The Braves connected on 29 of 73 shots from the field and 19 of 33 free throw attempts. The Mustangs hit 27 of 80 from the court and 20 of 29 from the line.

Munising played without the services of regular guard Tom Gattis who suffered a broken hand in practice Thursday.

Munising won the jayvee game, 61-56.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

The Harp Witch plucks a rusty harp and sings hate songs.

best to slay the giant!" Billy sighed and stuck the spell book in his pocket. He decided he would face the problem of the magic words when the time came. He followed Santa out of the house.

"If we could go to the witch's island in my sleigh we'd be there in no time," said Santa. "But the giant would surely snatch us out of the sky as he did the moon. Well, I know a turtle who can take us there quickly enough."

Billy's eyes popped when he saw Theodore Turtle waiting for them on the shore of the sea. Theodore was so big four men could ride on his back. But, wondered Billy, how fast could even a big turtle swim?

Theodore didn't intend to swim. He climbed out of his shell and turned it upside down in the water. Santa and Billy and Theodore climbed in; the turtle raised a sail, and away they sailed.

Presently they reached the shores of Keepaway and the home of the Harp Witch.

The Harp Witch is an ugly old crone. Day and night she plucks the strings of a rusty harp and croons songs of hate. Once she had been beautiful and young and madly in love with Goko the giant. Goko wooed her and promised to wed her but on the day of the wedding he changed his mind and never saw her again.

The witch was so mad she flew to Keepaway Island and lived forever after on her hate for Goko the giant. She did not want to talk to Santa and Billy. She told them to leave. But when Santa told her that they were seeking a way to destroy Goko, the witch laid aside her harp and eagerly listened to their story.

"The boy must have some magic," said Santa, "or the giant will finish him before he even draws his wooden sword."

The Harp Witch thought and thought. Finally she said, "Goko loves jewels."

Seventh and eighth grade students at the Escanaba Area Junior high school will get a two day vacation Monday and Tuesday to let their parents "go to school."

Roy Hivila, junior high principal, said today that the two days will be used for parent-teacher conferences. Because of the number of students involved, Hivila asked that parents with last names beginning with the letters A through M report for teacher meetings Monday and those from N to Z on Tuesday.

He emphasized, however, that parents are welcome on either of the two days, regardless of what letter their last name begins with. Hours are from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

Classes will remain in session for sixth grade students attending the junior high. Lunches will be served, as usual.
